

WEDNESDAY

Pre-Re-Happening Party

Black Mountain College Museum + Arts Center, along with Asheville's Media Arts Project, will host a 2013 Re-Happening kickoff party. The event shows off videos from past Re-Happenings, an annual spring event on the campus of Black Mountain College that honors the traditions of John Cage and other bohemian performers and cross-disciplinary artists who attended the school. The preview party Wednesday runs 6-9 p.m. and includes a DJ, cocktails and snacks by MG Road.
